Hong Kong Six Sigma Forum 2009

Saturday, 21 February 2009 2:30pm to 5:30pm

The Senate Room, 16 Floor, Li Ka Shing Tower, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University

Objectives

Six Sigma is said to be the key management philosophy in the 21st century for organizational business improvement with overwhelming success at a number of multinational co-operations. This forum attempts to look at the present and future of Six Sigma in various industries with a particular emphasis in Hong Kong through various Six Sigma experts in the field. The forum is expected to be a platform for experience sharing of various aspects of Six Sigma.

Registration Procedure

The forum is free of charge and prior registration is required. Only on-line registration via website at http://www.hkiessc.com/Activity_Registration/ActivityRegister.php?Event=44&PHPSESSID=20c1e891464fdd0798e88ab969d59a87 shall be accepted. Participant number is limited to 100 on a first-come-first-served basis. Application deadline is 14 February 2009 or when registration is full.
